The Gospel Advocate is the oldest living periodical published in the interest of the church of Christ, having just completed its fifty-first year. For forty-four years it has been practically under the same editorial management, and during all those years it has stood firm for pure apostolic Christianity in opposition to all departures from the clearly defined work and worship of the church. It has passed through many trials, has seen "hard times," has suffered from lack of support which it should have had; and yet, through all these years it has never faltered nor turned aside from the Lord's way to please men.

Its editorial policy stands for individual consecration, against ecclesiastic organizations, as the Scriptural and best method of doing missionary work. It recognizes no organization but the church of Christ as a scriptural medium of conveying the word and developing the Christian character.

It opposes all human creeds and ecclesiastic societies, and stands for the right of each individual to study the Scriptures for himself, and organize his own faith, without dictation or hindrance from churchy hierarchies. It opposes all clerical assumption of official authority.
